The Prime Minister,
10 Downing Street,
London.

Dear Prime Minister,

I am writing to urge you to support the bill to remove Sunday trading restrictions.

So many anomalies exist that the opportunity to rationalise things should be taken.

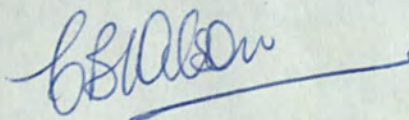

Scotland has enjoyed free trading for years without adverse effects.

Continental countries are no less holy despite Sunday trading.

Freedom of choice should be available to all. The right to open and close as with the right to go shopping or not.

Please support the bill, remember Prince Charles was recently urging the businessman to work harder 'like the Asians' so please remove any restrictions.

Yours sincerely,

C.B. Wilson.
