THE PRIME MINISTER

22 February, 1985

Dear Mr. Speaker,

On my return to London I write to thank you most warmly for having invited me to address the Joint Meeting of Congress. It was indeed one of the great experiences of my life and I am most grateful to you and your House colleagues for having given me this opportunity.

I enjoyed my visit to your office in the afternoon and the chance to see your treasures, as well as our talk. Thank you also for your kind gift which will be a memento of a great day.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

The Honourable Thomas B. O'Neill
