

Prime Minister

I had lunch with Bill Deedes just before your return from the Far East.

He asked me to let you know that there will soon be announced a modest financial restructuring of the "Daily Telegraph". He wanted you to know that as part of this restructuring, two new names will be brought to prominence in the Telegraph's Managerial Board.

These are an unidentified, but senior, Montagu from the Samuel Montagu network, and Peter Rawlinson.

MICHAEL ALISON

17.4.85