MR POWELL

Tokyo Economic Summit

--- As you will see from the attached message from the Japanese Personal Representative, Mr Nakasone has decided that Heads of State or Government should take lunch on their own on Monday 5 May, and that they should take dinner with Foreign Ministers that evening. At the dinner in the evening the President of the French Republic will be accompanied not by Monsieur Raimond but by Monsieur Chirac.

Dear Colleague,

This is to inform you of the new programme for the afternoon of 5 May, which we discussed and left open at Rambouillet.

After careful considerations, Prime Minister Nakasone has come to a final decision that the programme for the afternoon should be as in the attached paper.

Looking forward to working with you in Tokyo,

Yours sincerely,

REISHI TESHIMA
